WHEAT PRICES SENT INDER RESTRAINT SPINNING DOWNWARD

Pressure Obvious in Splendid Growing Weather in All the Grain States Dampens Ardor of Bulls.

perature, especially in the northwest, sent wheat prices today spinning down-hill. At one time the market showed a decline of 25c. Closing figures were easy, fo to lie under Saturday night. Latest trading left corn a shade to ic lower, oats off it to 15c, and provisions less expensive by 15c to 49c.

"Nothing like it since 1835" was the way wheat conditions were described in the entire stretch from Minneapolis to the Rockies. Temperatures were said to be perfect, with ample moisture. Scarcely less glowing reports were received from other sections, and the trade took almost unanimously to the selling side. The absence of support led to a severe break, from which there was no relief until announcement of a big decrease in the United States visible supply total.

Although the wheat market recovered about half of the ground lost, fresh orders to sell came into the pit, and at the end of the session no sign could be discerned of the buillish enthusiasm which had prevailed before the disastrous setback in prices last Thursday. An official report telling of unlooked-for engagement of winter crop acreage in France had a depressing effect on bolders. During the day July ranged from $1.08 to $1.081, with last sales lic off, at $1.073.

Corn suffered from liquidation sales on the part of the weak-kneed longs. Oats fluctuated between 723c and 749c, closing comparatively steady at 735c, a net loss of 5c. Cash grades were weak. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 78@781c.

Weather and crop conditions gave oat traders no alternative but to follow the descent of other grains. Upper and lower levels touched for July were 49c and 475c. The close, 475c, represented a decline of 15c.

A larger run of hogs here than expected 0,000 instead of the estimated number 17,000, put the provision market under pressure. When the pit was cleared the fecline in pork amounted to 32½c to 40c ard 22½c to 27½c, and ribs 17½c to 25c.
